STORY

Once upon a time, on the distant planet Geona, there was an evil sorceress. Her name was Killga, and she lived on a floating island. She was very greedy, and she craved power among all things. Throughout the planet, there were many treasures. Killga used these treasures to increase her power and her wealth. However, three warriors stood in her way: the Dovelight Crusaders. Ball Man, Peggy Peach, and Dontrel Dolphin possessed the skills and the teamwork to recover the planet's treasure. Undeterred, Killga assembled a crew of vile monsters to stop them. Mr. Grim was the prime henchman. In his company were Ballister MacVile, Yaro the Phantom, Hafero Dolphin, and Repulsa Peach; together they were the Eclipse Legion. To get to the sorceress, the dovelights had to fight their way through hordes of baddies and booby traps while collecting all the treasures in each region.

- Sometimes it's necessary to use a particular dovelight to progress.
- If you walk off a ledge, you can jump in mid-air to avoid a nasty fall.
- At certain points in the game, you'll find a little pit stop. Restore your energy, and touch the magical door to exit.
- When you take damage, you are temporarily invincible.
